CONSOLIDATED ACTION

JOINT STATUS CONFERENCE REPORT AND PROPOSED AGENDA FOR SEPTEMBER 27, 2006 STATUS/SCHEDULING CONFERENCE

In response to the Court's May 17, 2006 Order, Plaintiffs ADVANCED MICRO DEVICES, INC., and AMD INTERNATIONAL SALES & SERVICES, LTD. (hereafter, jointly, "AMD"), CLASS PLAINTIFFS, and Defendants INTEL CORPORATION and INTEL KABUSHIKI KAISHA (hereafter, jointly, "Intel") have conferred, and by and through their undersigned attorneys, jointly submit this Status Conference Report and Proposed Agenda for the September 27, 2006 Status/Scheduling Conference for the Court's consideration.

MATTERS AFFECTING AMD v. INTEL (C.A. No. 05-441)

1. Rule 34 Production of Documents by AMD and Intel.

Paragraph 5(c) of Case Management Order No. 1, entered on May 16, 2006, requires that the parties complete their Rule 34 document exchange by December 31, 2006 subject to the Court entertaining one agreed-upon, reasonable extension. At the time this deadline was established (the April 20, 2006 Initial Conference), the parties anticipated beginning their document exchange by July 1, 2006, thereby giving themselves six months to complete it.

The parties have made substantial progress in identifying, harvesting, reviewing and assembling documents to be exchanged. Pursuant to Stipulation and Order Regarding Document Production, entered on May 17, 2006, the parties identified potential document custodians, and on June 1, 2006 they exchanged their Party-Designated Custodian Lists pursuant to Paragraph 2 of that Order. Since then, they have independently assembled teams of lawyers and begun a review of the files and electronic files of those custodians. On July 28, 2006, they commenced the informal discovery provided for in Paragraph 3 of the Order necessary for the preparation of lists of Adverse Party-Designated Custodians.

However, due to a variety of circumstances beyond the parties' control, the actual Rule 34 document exchange has not commenced, and it is now not anticipated to begin until sometime in mid- to late-October, 2006. (An outstanding issue affecting the start of document production is the timing of entry of the protective order.) AMD and Intel will jointly request the Court to reset the six month clock so as to provide a new target date of April 16, 2007 for completion of the document exchange, subject to the Court entertaining one agreed-upon, reasonable extension.

2. Trial Date

The parties anticipate sharing their views about the proposed trial date. AMD will ask the Court to set the trial for September 2, 2008. Intel will ask that trial commence on April 27, 2009.

MATTERS AFFECTING THE CONSOLIDATED CLASS ACTIONS (C.A. No. 05-485)

3. Status of the Consolidated Class Complaint

4. Revised Class Certification Schedule

Based on the assumption that third party deposition discovery on class issues can commence as of May 1, 2007, Intel agrees with Class Plaintiffs that if the target date for AMD and Intel to complete their document productions is re-set to April 16, 2007, the target dates for class certification briefing and discovery should be extended as follows:

EVENT	DATE
Plaintiffs' Class Certification Motion, Supporting Memorandum of Law and Class Expert Report	July 6, 2007
Deposition of Plaintiffs' Class Certification Expert and Affiants/Declarants	July 9-September 6, 2007
Intel's Opposition and Rebuttal Class Expert Report	September 7, 2007
Deposition of Intel's Class Certification Expert and Affiants/Declarants	September 10-November 8, 2007
Plaintiffs' Reply Brief and Class Expert Reply Report	November 9, 2007
Class Certification Hearing	Late-November 2007

MATTERS AFFECTING BOTH PROCEEDINGS (MDL No. 05-1717)

5. Third Party Subpoena Compliance

The scope of document discovery to be made by the approximately sixty-five computer companies (OEMs), system builders, component distributors and computer retailers the parties have subpoenaed remains an open issue with negotiations ongoing. AMD and Class Plaintiffs will ask the Court to help bring these negotiations to a close, and to ensure that third-party discovery tracks party discovery, by establishing November 1, 2006 as a date by which the parties either reach agreement with the subpoenaed third-parties or submit any disputed issues to the Special Master. Intel does not believe that such a formal deadline is necessary or reasonable given the number of third parties.
